ERDINGER Leicht – for calorie-conscious beer lovers

Sometimes less is what you need. ERDINGER Leicht is the right choice for those who appreciate a reduced level of alcohol and calories. This wheat beer is light on its feet: delicate malt and hop notes and a refined acidity characterize its lean body. By contrast, its sparkling carbonation doesn't hold back and delivers a strongly tingling sensation on the tongue – very lively!

With an ABV of 3.1%, ERDINGER Leicht has about 40% less alcohol and calories than a classic wheat beer. A modest alternative for connoisseurs from the private brewery ERDINGER Weissbräu. Brewed according to the Bavarian Purity Law.
